

Guidance - Employing a Private Tutor

Education Welfare Service

Does West Berkshire Council hold a list of approved private tutors?

West Berkshire Council does not keep a list of approved private tutors. You, as a parent/ carer, are responsible for choosing and paying for private tuition.

Are private tutors regulated by Ofsted, the Department of Education or West Berkshire Council?

- Tutors are not required to be registered or approved by any statutory organisation
- A tutor does not have to be a qualified teacher
- Any person can work as a tutor

Can my child's school help?

Your child's school is often the best place to start. Share your concerns about your child's progress; staff may not be aware of your worries. They will already have a good knowledge of your child and his or her individual learning needs and abilities. They may be able to offer additional support to your child as part of the teaching they provide in school.

School may know of teaching staff that may be able to tutor your child at home on a privately paid basis. All teaching staff employed in maintained schools will have been checked to make sure they are suitable and qualified to work with children.

Whatever you arrange for your child, it is helpful to tell their school of your plans so that you can work together to support your child in their learning.

How do I find a private tutor?

You could find a tutor by:

- Contacting tutoring agencies who employ tutors and advertise in the local press and internet
- Looking for adverts for private tutors in the local press and internet
- Asking for recommendations from other parents

Whatever option you chose, you should ensure that you are satisfied that the tutor in question is qualified to teach and is safe to work with children. You should not rely on any other agency or body to decide whether a tutor is suitable for your child.

When choosing a tutor how can I be sure that he or she is properly qualified and does not pose a risk to my child?

You will be employing the tutor. All employers need to ensure staff working with children are properly qualified and do not pose a risk to children, you should therefore:

- Interview prospective tutors
- Ask to see qualification certificates and professional references
- Contact referees to check references are real
- Ask to see a CV and question any gaps in employment
- If the tutor works in a school ask for a reference from the Headteacher
- Take your child to meet with the tutor as this will help you decide if he or she is the right tutor for your child
- Be clear about methods of communication with your child. All correspondence should come to you; tutors should never text or email your child directly

Some tutors may have an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check for other work they do. You should ask to see a copy of the disclosure certificate. It is for the individual tutor to agree that you can see their DBS certificate.

It is up to you as a parent/carer to decide whether it is too risky to your child to employ a private tutor without a DBS check.

When I have found a suitable tutor, where should tuition take place?

Tuition is best undertaken in a quiet place, which is well-organised and suitable for study, away from the distractions of mobile phones, television or radio. A bedroom is never appropriate even if it contains a study area.

It is essential that you, or another trusted adult, remain on the premises; it is important that you are able to go into the teaching area and can watch and listen if you wish. Doors can be kept partially open to allow both an undisturbed learning environment and your supervision.

Any tutor who is mindful and aware of current expectations of professional staff should have no objection and is likely to offer the arrangement without your suggestion.

What should I do if my child tells me something inappropriate has happened or I find the tutor behaving inappropriately with my child?

Any adult who behaves in an inappropriate or abusive manner with a child must be reported to Children's Services. If your child tells you of inappropriate behaviour you must listen to your child and reassure them. However embarrassed or uncomfortable you feel about what your child tells you, or what you find, you must put the welfare of your child first. In such circumstances you should ensure that the individual is dismissed immediately from the position of private tutor to your child and you must also inform either the Police or West Berkshire Contact, Advice and Assessment Service (CAAS) on 01635 503090, who will make enquiries into the matter jointly with the police and where appropriate, the Education Service.

CONCLUSION

As a parent you will wish to be satisfied that you are employing a tutor who is properly qualified and who can be relied upon to cause no harm to your child.

- Ask for evidence of qualifications, references and DBS check
- Always ensure you or another trusted adult remain on the premises
- DO NOT delay in reporting abusive or inappropriate behaviour to the relevant authorities and in such circumstances do not be afraid to dismiss the individual from your employ

If you have any reservations about recruiting a particular individual – DON'T!
