

Notes
for Conference

Thinking about the questions and making some notes will help you to contribute to the Child Protection Conference

Why are people worried about my children?

What things do people need to know more about?

What things work well in my family?

Are my children safe?

What things do I need to know more about?

What things need to change and who can help us to make those changes?